WELCOME TO SARDINIA

Sardinia is a region of ancient traditions and magnificent landscapes. A typical Mediterranean environment.
Horizons of untainted and wild nature, secret beaches, crystal sea waters and a granite interior just waiting to be explored.
The inland is marked by mountain areas and wide green valleys covered with shrubs, spots of grassy land with a mixture of myrtle, serpillo, India figs and woods of secular cork oak and juniper.
Cruise along this marvelous coastline with their lovely grottoes and coves.

Story behind the event

The America's Cup is oldest trophy in international sport and dates back to 1851 when the yacht America sailed across the Atlantic to take on the best of the British fleet.

The trophy won that day was donated through a Deed of Gift to the New York Yacht Club, to be held as a challenge trophy for friendly competition between nations. Since then the trophy has only been raced for 35 times in the 167 years. To this day the famous quote mentioned to Queen Victoria all those years ago continue to ring true: "There is no Second".
