

EMILIA-ROMAGNA

---

Art, history and architecture fuse together in cities such as Bologna, Modena and Ravenna, and this special region, found between the Apennines and the Adriatic sea, crossed by the Po sea, gave birth to illustrious figures, such as Enzo Ferrari, Luciano Pavarotti and the Ducati brothers.

Milan MXP is the closest international airport. It is 260km from Bologna, the main city Bologna has its own airport which serves the region

Did you know that...
Emilia-Romagna is the reign of pasta?

Curiosity

Emilia-Romagna is home to some of the most famous Italian recipes and ingredients: for example, the famous Parmesan cheese is mainly produced in the city of Parma, as well as the Parma ham.

And the Lasagna Bolognese of course!

In Bologna there is the oldest university in Europe, founded in 1088.

The longest porticoed gallery in the world is in Bologna: 3.796 mt
