

LAZIO

Little town, villas regional parks, waterfalls and old civilization's ruins: the Lazio region has so many treasure outside the city of Rome, definitely to check out when spending extra days there.

Rome FCO Leonardo da Vinci Airport is the international airport of this region. It is 30km from Rome, well connected with both international and national routes.

Did you know that...
The Lazio region is famous also for the numerous natural spas?

Curiosity

The majority of the territory of Lazio belongs to different National Parks.

Lazio contains in its borders a whole state: the Vatican City.

Lazio owes its name to the Latins, an ancient Italic population that inhabited this territory before Rome became the largest capital of antiquity.
