

An aerial photograph of a coastal bay in Malta. The water is a vibrant turquoise color, transitioning to a deeper blue further out. The surrounding land is rocky and hilly, with some sparse vegetation. In the foreground, a large, prominent rock formation juts out into the water. Several small boats are visible in the bay. The sky is clear and blue.

AIR MALTA

Air Malta is the airline of the Maltese Islands. We are proud to connect Malta with over 35 major cities across Europe and the Mediterranean. Working together with our partner airlines, we offer convenient connections to many more destinations in North America and the Middle East. 1974 proved to be a momentous year for our country. Air Malta commenced operations on 1 April, and Malta declared itself a republic later in the year. Modern day Malta is a cosmopolitan country which blends time-honoured Mediterranean culture with a spirited, contemporary vibe. Our team is working towards creating lasting success, which will be achieved without any compromise in service and by offering better value for money. Our aim is to act as your dedicated destination partner, helping open up the myriad opportunities on offer, both leisure and business. It is our daily mission to work together in achieving the exceptional standards of travel experience we're aiming for at Air Malta.

GOZO TOURISM ASSOCIATION

Gozo is just a few steps away from Malta but distinctly different. The island is more rural, more tranquil and known for its picturesque scenery, pristine coastline and untouched country trails. Baroque churches rise from the heart of small villages, and traditional farmhouses dot the rural landscape. Gozo is a masterpiece wrought by nature and shaped by 7000 years of culture. Myth and reality meet here on what is believed to have been the Isle of Calypso in Homer's Odyssey, where the sea nymph held Odysseus in her thrall for seven years. Based on the values of sustainability and the need to protect the natural environment, there is the project to make Gozo an eco-island. The Gozo Tourism association is promoting Gozo as an all year round distinct destination and is the Gozitan tourism voice both locally and internationally.

MALTA UNCUT

Malta Uncut is the creation of Lisa & Edward - a multilingual team with over 25 years' experience in events management and a vision to do things differently. High standards, quality and innovation are keywords at Malta Uncut. Creativity and an eye for detail coupled with our passion for the job and our islands, convinced us to set up Malta Uncut – a company which focuses on people and relationships first and foremost. We believe that building relationships and listening to understand is the way to create a successful and personalised event experience. Malta Uncut's insider knowledge of the islands will help you to create an event which is not just outside the box, but well beyond it, avoiding the tourist traps and making sure that you discover the real soul of the islands that many visitors do not have the privilege of experiencing. Our aim is to incite emotions through the experience which in turn will create memories. If that is achieved, then the event can be considered a success.

ROLLING GEEKS

Rolling Geeks Malta, an experience not to be missed. Exclusive activity for Europe. Behind the seemingly impenetrable thick walls, flanking Malta's Grand Harbour, lies a hidden gem known as the Three Cities, which is surprisingly off the tourist radar. Explore this gorgeous open air museum full of architectural riches and breath-taking views, while cruising around in your eco-friendly, smart technology vehicle. The cars are unbelievably fun, safe and easy to drive. Following a GPS guided route at an easy pace while listening to the commentary onboard in the language of your choice gives you the freedom to sightsee at your own pace. The online tracking and onboard communication systems enable the Rolling Geeks' vigilant staff to provide assistance throughout the tour giving you peace of mind.. The selfie feature in the cars adds to the fun, the rest is up to you to capture.
